Diversity Matters is dedicated to providing the highest quality learning and education opportunities to activists and practitioners of environmental and social change. We are dedicated to addressing classism throughout our work and want to make our programs affordable across all financial means. Our goal is for program participants to make an equal and equitable financial “stretch”. Toward that goal, we offer a sliding scale for our two-day sessions. We ask that you pay the fee that is do-able for you and within the following guidelines. If you can afford to pay more, we ask that you do so to support our goal of creating access for all. If you have any questions or need a payment plan or additional subsidy to participate, please contact us.

$495 organizations with budgets over $5 million, universities, government agencies
$450 organizations with budgets from $2 million through up to $5 million
$400 organizations with budgets from $1 million up to $2 million
$350 organizations with budgets of less than $1 million

To complete payment, please mail a check for the session fee written to “Diversity Matters” to:

CANCELLATION POLICY

Due to the participatory nature of our workshops and the challenge presented by last minute cancellation, Diversity Matters has instituted a cancellation policy for all Leadership Series sessions. If you are registered for a session but find that you are unable to attend, please notify us as soon as possible. Cancellations more than two weeks in advance of the event may be credited to a future session, but will incur a $100 transfer fee. Cancellations less than two weeks in advance of the event are non-refundable and non-transferable. If you are unable to attend due to extenuating circumstances, please contact us to discuss alternative options.

In the event that Diversity Matters cancels or postpones a session of our own accord, your registration fee will be 100% credited towards participation in a future session.

Please contact us at 802-299-7317 with any questions.
